ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

While on supervision, the defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this Court and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation Unit (FLU) of the U.S. Attorney's Office with access to any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with FLU.
2. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation. The defendant shall immediately notify the probation officer of the receipt of any indicated monies.
3. The defendant shall be prohibited from incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the United States Probation Office so long as there is a balance on the Court-imposed financial obligation.
4. The defendant shall pay the restitution as previously ordered by the Court.
5. The defendant shall comply with all federal, state, and local sex offender registration laws and provide verification of registration to the probation officer.
6. The defendant shall participate in a sex-offense specific treatment program. The defendant shall enter, cooperate, and complete said program until released by the United States Probation Officer. The defendant shall abide by all policies and procedures of the sex-offense specific program. During the course of said treatment, the defendant shall be subject to periodic and random physiological testing which may include but is not limited to polygraph testing and/or other specialized assessment instruments. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with treatment based on a co-payment fee approved by the United States Probation Office. Co-payments shall never exceed the total costs of treatment.
7. The defendant shall be prohibited from contact with children under the age of 18 without the prior written permission of the probation officer and shall report to the probation officer immediately, but in no event later than 24 hours, any unauthorized contact with children under the age of 18.
8. The defendant shall be prohibited from engaging in any occupation, business, profession, or volunteer work where she has access to children under the age of 18 without prior written approval from the probation officer.
9. The defendant shall not loiter within 500 feet of schools, parks, playgrounds, arcades, or other places frequented by children under the age of 18.
10. The defendant shall not enter the premises or loiter near where the victim resides, is employed or frequents except under circumstances approved in advance and in writing by the probation officer.
11. The defendant shall pay all current and future costs of counseling for the victim of the instant offense.
12. The defendant shall not possess or use a computer, gaming equipment with web and/or internet capability, or any audio/visual recording or producing equipment, except with the written permission of the probation officer.

ADDITIONAL STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

13. The defendant shall not possess or use a computer, peripheral equipment, or any other device with access to any "on line computer services" at any location (including employment), or subscribe to or use any Internet service, without the prior written approval of the probation office. In addition, the defendant shall consent to her probation officer or probation service representative conducting random or periodic unannounced examinations of any computer(s) equipment to which she has access, other personal computers, and electronic storage devices to which you have access, including web enable cell phones. The examination may include retrieval and copying of all data from the defendant's computer(s), or any computer(s) to which the defendant has access, and any internal and external peripherals to insure compliance with this condition and/or removal of such equipment for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection; the defendant shall, at the direction of his probation officer, consent to having installed on the computer(s), at the defendant's expense, any hardware or software systems to monitor or filter his computer use. Prior to installation of any such hardware or software systems, the defendant shall allow the U.S. Probation Office to examine the computer and/or electronic storage device. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with monitoring based on a co-payment fee approved by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall warn any other residents, employers, or family members that the computer(s) and any related equipment may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

14. The defendant shall submit her person, residence, office, computer, or vehicle to a search, conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. The defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

15. The defendant shall advise the probation officer of all computer, electronic equipment, and web enabled equipment, including cell phones, to which he possesses or has access within 24 hours of obtaining same.
